- Power Supply + LAN to be shut down for every hall
- To bring people out of their rooms & communicate with their peers
- Hot-Spots identified across the campus – Jnan Ghosh Stadium, Technology Students' Gymkhana, Bidhan Chowk.
- Hotspots will be lighted up
- Jnan Ghosh Stadium will have surprise elements

Day 2 - 10th April, 2014, Thursday

- R U OK? Day
- Every person in a wing comes out and starts a conversation with his wing-mates around "R U OK"™
- Observed institute wide between 8:30 PM to 9:30 PM
- Coordinated by representatives of respective wings
- Representative will be allocated by HCM & Hall Coordinators of each Hall
- The names of absentees will be noted down

Day 3 - 11th April, 2014, Friday

- Yellow Ribbon Day
- Entire KGP community will wear Yellow Ribbons throughout the day to signify that there are people who care
- Message to be sent – "We are keeping our flames alive"
- The ribbons will be provided to the Halls at their security counters for distribution to the boarders a day in advance
- At the end of the day these ribbons can be clustered on notice boards everywhere. These ribbons will also be put on three trees - one near PAN loop, one in front of Jnan Ghosh Stadium and one near BC Roy Hall
- Professors may devote some time in the class to address this vital issue
- Director's Anecdotes: The Director will be interacting informally with the students at Bidhan Chowk. This session can be of an hour - from 6 PM to 7 PM

Day 4 - 12th April, 2014, Saturday
